Lady Captain's Day goes off with a swing Sandy's day while Colin's ace scoops the pool

FIFTEEN teams, each consisting of one lady and two men, enjoyed a stableford waltz in cloudy but mostly dry conditions to celebrate

However, these noble efforts were eclipsed by Colin Price who, having won the Men's Captain's day a couple of weeks back, scooped the pool when he aced the 11th. Well done Colin.

Also in the prizes was Derrick Perrin who holed a 30 foot putt to win a fun putting competition organised and run by Tom McAuley. The event turned out to be a little less fun towards the end when the rain started!

Captain's Day winners

Sandy Miller's Lady Captain's Day on Saturday June 16.

Ann and Steve Johnson and Dennis White won the competition with 84 points while Tina Clayton, Tony Coventry and Shaun Ponsford were second on 82 and Jane Brackenbury, Greg Giles and Colin Price third with 76.

Several players holed out in two for their share of the 'twos comp' namely Tina Clayton on 17, Derrick Perrin also on 17 and Muz Mzouri on 14. Shaun Ponsford and Nigel Huzarik went one better with a pair of twos each. Shaun on 11 and 14 Nigel on 11 and 17.

Sandy was keen to thank everyone who helped on the day saying: "I am really grateful to everyone who combined to make this such an enjoyable day. Thanks go to Bournebridge for the use of the course that was in great condition, Petra for providing everyone a lunch of sandwiches and chips and to Tom for running the putting comp. In particular I would like to mention Tina Mulford for all her invaluable help in planning the day. "Finally I would like to thank my husband, Keith, for his support and attendance on the day. Especially for succumbing to my bribe of being able to drive a buggy round the course to deliver water and cereal bars to the competitors and, of course, for taking the photos."

Home James!
