

Last word on Captain's weekend and this week's results

Captain's weekend result

When we went to press last week we did not have the final result of the stableford competition played on Monday July 15 that formed part of the men's Captain's day weekend.

We did cover the fact that Geoff Pudner had scored 46 stableford points and in doing so scored a gross 77, five shots less than his age. We did record an error though in that the information we had at the time showed it was off the white tees whereas in fact it was played off the yellows. It was a remarkable effort anyway and congratulations again go to the evergreen Geoff Pudner.

Also returning fine scores were Andrew Kerr second with 41 points and Eric Neves third with 39. There was also a remarkable seven-way tie on 38 points for fourth place with the order of Richard Watson, John Harrod, John (Chopper) Harris, Andy Grayson, Graham Mort, Pete Hill and Steven Haylor settled by count-back.

Ian on count-back

Ian Saunders took the men's midweek stableford on Tuesday July 16 with 41 points winning on count-back from James Jackson who was second while Terry Storrar was a single point behind in third place.

Simone takes midweek medal

Simone Diamond was a clear winner in the ladies' July midweek medal on Tuesday with a net 78. Georgie Seaman was second on 87 and Jane Wilmore third with 97.

...and it's Tina's stableford

Tina Mulford won the ladies' stableford played on Saturday July 20 with 35 points winning by a single point from Jane Brackenbury. Gale McAuley was third on 31.

Liddiard update

With this the penultimate opportunity of qualifying for the Liddiard final at the end of the month there were a record number of entries and successful qualifiers on Wednesday July 17. Luke Prestoe was winner on the day with 24 points and the other qualifiers were Stuart King on 22, Gordon Munro, Simon McNeill, Bob Graham and Rob Bridgeman with 21, Patrick Wilmore, Brian Bailey, David Cannings and Trevor Rogers on 20 and Kevin Good, Bob Patten, Simon Barrie, Kim Potter and Billy Nicholson with 19. To date, 50 players have qualified for the final on July 31.

Despite the big turnout on Wednesday the placing in the Herbie Sternberg Trophy remains the same with Patrick Wilmore on 103, Jason Kendal and Chris Terrett on 102 and Darren Boulton on 99. With only four scores registered to date, both Greg Collins and Bernie Holden still have a chance of taking the title but it is difficult to see a winner coming from outside this top six. So, it's everything to play for and all will be revealed this coming Wednesday.

Central Sevens climb table

The Central Sevens team won 7-0 at home to Rye Hill on Saturday.

They therefore continue their climb up the Division 1 table with a third successive win, two of which have been away from home.

Newbury Inter-Club challenge

EIGHT hardy golfers braved the driving rain at Donnington Grove on Friday to represent West Berks in the Newbury Inter-Club challenge.

Although we do not have the full results when going to press we can confirm that we did not finish in the top three but our team scores were:

In the pair's competitions Kevin Hopwood and Rob Bridgeman with 40 points won the men's event, Mary Harwood and Kevin Wilkins scored 37 points in the mixed and Gale McAuley and Sandy Miller 30 in the ladies' match. Sian Soanes scored 24 in the ladies' singles and Patrick Wilmore 27 in the men's to give us a total of 158 points.

Well done to all for braving the rain and the puddles.

Is it Chesty, Flipper or Dusty?

BACK IN October 2018 we re-christened Graham ‘Chesty’ Miles ‘Flipper’ as he deposited his trolley, bags and valuables in the reservoir. But no longer! He now surely deserves a new nickname, perhaps ‘Dusty’, for his exploits on Sunday.

Playing in the Pro’s Cup with Simon Matton he managed to find the waste bin with his drive when teeing off on the third. Conscious of the old adage that you can’t go far wrong if you play the ball as it lies, the picture (left) shows his initial efforts that, not surprisingly, came to naught and so he decided to take a free drop just like the rest of us.

So ‘Dusty’ it is then until his next exploit – is there anything this man wouldn’t do for a bit of publicity?

Where did your team finish? West Berks Kerridge Pro-Am full results

Tim Howes contacted TTNB last week and suggested that it would be good if those members who had supported the club by playing in the Pro-Am could see a list of where each pro and team finished.

Somewhat belatedly TTNB provides such a list below but maybe in future years the organisers should endeavour to post such a list in the clubhouse and on the club website soon after the event.
