

Interim update from WBGC

Your editor apologises that owing to a combination of personal and practical circumstances it was not possible to produce a full TTNB this week.

All the results since our previous published edition on August 4 will appear in TTNB 136 that will be published early next week.

However, there are two competitions that take place this coming week and are worthy of mention here.

TC and Shaun lead in Badger

Tony Coventry and Shaun Ponsford shot net 60 on Sunday August 9 to win the first round of the Badger Trophy. Nigel Day and Chris Prior were two shots behind in second place while Mike Wiggins and Jimmy Scott were third with net 63.

However, the outcome of this two-round, better-ball medal competition is far from over as 16 pairs lie within six shots of the leaders and a packed field is close behind.

All will be revealed in the second round coming up this Sunday, August 16.

82 players qualify for Liddiard final

The nine-hole, Wednesday qualifying competitions for the Liddiard Cup were completed on August 12 with 82 now eligible for the final to be played next Wednesday August 19.

Wednesday August 5

There were 26 entrants last week of whom 16 players scored the necessary 19 points or over to qualify.

Robin Land won with a splendid 25 points while Christy Whelehan with 22 points beat Colin Price on count-back to take second spot.

Wednesday August 12

The final round saw 20 contestants compete in very hot weather with 13 reaching the qualifying score.

Stephen White won with 24 points on count-back from Charlie Dixon while a three-way tie on 23 was resolved on count-back with Chris Prior taking third spot from Simon Barrie and Paul Barton.

Chris takes Herbie Sternberg Trophy

Chris Prior won the Herbie Sternberg Trophy, a competition that is awarded for the best aggregate score from a maximum of five Liddiard qualifiers.

The final placings were:

1. Chris Prior 115
2. Stephen White 108
3. Chris Terrett 103
4. Charlie Dixon 100

Chris returned an average of exactly 23 points over the five rounds - well played indeed. An honourable mention must also go to Chris Terrett who played all ten rounds and recorded an average of 19.6 points a round.
